INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Of Home Family and Future, Inc.
New York, New York 10003

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Of Home Family and Future, Inc., as of December 31, 2010, and the related statements of activity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Of Home Family and Future, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The prior year summarized comparative information has been derived from Of Home Family and Future, Inc.'s December 31, 2009 financial statements and, in our report dated February 5, 2010; we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Of Home Family and Future, Inc. as of December 31, 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

OF HOME FAMILY AND FUTURE, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2010 AND 2009

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Nature of Activities:

Of Home Family and Future, Inc., is a non-profit corporation organized in November 2004, for the purpose of providing funds for individuals who have shown the potential to become successful members of society, but lack the resources to overcome poverty or abuse. Eighty-four percent of its revenue is from public support.

Basis of Presentation:

The Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets, as applicable: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Property and Equipment:

The Organization follows the practice of capitalizing all expenditures for property and equipment in excess of $1,000. The fair value of donated property and equipment is similarly capitalized. Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Accounting Method:

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Income Taxes:

The Organization is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Organization's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. In addition, the Organization qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170 (b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). There was no unrelated business income for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Use of Estimates:

Management uses estimates as assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Grants, fees, and tuition related to programs which began after the fiscal year-end are included as advanced tuition and reflected in income in the year the service is performed. Costs incurred prior to the close of the fiscal year for such programs are classified as prepaid expenses.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

OF HOME FAMILY AND FUTURE, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2010 AND 2009

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued):

Investments:

The Organization carries investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities at their fair values in the Statement of Financial Position, Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying Statement of Activities.

Comparative Financial Information:

The financial information shown for 2009 in the accompanying financial statements is included to provide a basis for comparison with 2010 and presents summarized totals only.

Donated Services and Materials:

No amounts have been reflected in the statements for donated services. The Organization generally pays for services requiring specific expertise. However, many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks that assist the Organization with specific assistance programs, grant requests, and various committee assignments. For the year ended December 31, 2010 the Organization received donated summer camp tuition of $6,500 which will be recognized as In-Kind.

Contributions:

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets upon satisfaction of the time or purpose to be available for unrestricted net asset use unless specifically restricted by the donor.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events after the balance sheet date through March 24, 2011, the date of issuance of our financial statements.

UNCERTAINTY IN INCOME TAXES

Of Home Family and Future, Inc. has adopted the provisions of FASB ASC Reference 740 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes-an interpretation of FASB Statement NO. 109 (FIN 48). Under FIN 48, an organization must recognize the tax benefit associated with tax positions taken for tax return purposes when it is more likely than not the position will be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority. Of Home Family and Future, Inc. does not believe they have taken any material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly they have not recorded any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. Of Home Family and Future, Inc. has filed for and received income tax exemptions in the jurisdictions where required to do so.

Of Home Family and Future, Inc.'s Federal Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax Returns 2009, 2008 and 2007 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally three years after they were filed. Additionally, Of Home Family and Future, Inc. has filed Internal Revenue Service Form 990 informational returns, as required, and all other applicable returns in jurisdictions where so required. For the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, there were no interest or penalties recorded or included in the statement of activities.
